Local Attractions

Mermaid Beach

Gold Coast Highway, Mermaid Beach

Open 24 hours

Swimmers and surfers who want to escape from a crowd of people are attracted to this calm stretch of the sandy coast. There are no crowds at the Heron Avenue break, but eager surfers make tracks for it before returning to the Surf Life Saving Club, which is regarded as one of the best surf clubs on the Coast.

Dreamworld

Dreamworld Parkway, Coomera
(07) 5588 1111

Monday to Thursday 10:30am - 4:00pm, Friday 10:30am - 5:00pm,
Saturday & Sunday 10:00am - 5:00pm

Semaphore's white sands, family-friendly shallows and colourful foreshore make for a classic Adelaide beach escape. After walking the path through the dunes, a wide expanse of white sandy beach leads to the water. Enjoy the expanse of green foreshore – two kilometres of public space preserved for what beach holidays are supposed to be all about. Fun! Ride on the vintage carousel, buy ice creams and fish and chips, cycle on the bike track, and ride on the steam train that puffs along the shoreline.

People First Stadium

Nerang-Broadbeach Road, Carrara
(07) 5644 6200

Based on the Gold Coast, Queensland, Heritage Bank Stadium is the home of the Gold Coast SUNS AFL and AFLW teams. Throughout the year, a number of world-famous concerts and cricket matches will be held here. A new $144 million stadium has been built at Carrara, in conjunction with AFL expansion to the Gold Coast. The stadium has a seating capacity of 27,500 and may be expanded to around 40,000 in the future.
