Local Attractions

Nobbys Beach

Corner Shortland Esplanade and Nobbys
(02) 4974 2109

Open 24 hours

Newcastle's highest profile beach, Nobbys Beach is a favored swimming spot for family groups, those learning to surf and some of the local dolphins. It is an ideal place to spend a whole day, because of the beach on one side and the public recreational area around which there are barbecue facilities. A bonus is the kiosk selling coffee, cakes—fish, chips, and burgers. A must-do is to walk along the Nobbys break-wall underneath the iconic Nobbys Lighthouse

Newcastle Memorial Walk

24 Memorial Dr, The Hill
(02) 4974 6000

Open 24 hours

Newcastle Memorial Walk is a breathtaking 450m coastal walkway, offering unparalleled views of Newcastle's coastline, the city, and the expansive Hunter Valley. The walk is highlighted by a 160m cliff-top bridge, which is adorned with striking steel silhouettes of soldiers and inscribed with close to 4,000 family names of nearly 11,000 known Hunter Valley men and women who enlisted during World War I.

Fort Scratchley Historic Site

Nobbys Road, Newcastle East
(02) 4929 3066

Closed Tuesdays, Open 10:00am - 4:00pm every other day

The part of the Newcastle army's history that fascinates me is Fort Scratchley. Built looking out over the ocean in Newcastle East in the late 1880's, the original purpose of the installation was to prepare Australia for a possible attack by Russia! The fortress's now a historical museum and its narrow, subterranean tunnels are fascinating to explore. For visitors of any age, this is a must!
